

lunare gewürztraminer alto adige DOC

description:

The name for this intriguing aromatic wine is derived from the fresco of Madonna sitting on a crescent moon in the church of Terlan. Like all of the offerings from Terlano's Selection series, Lunare's yield and production are strictly limited. 70% of the wine spends time in large Tonneaux and 30% in stainless steel tanks. The wine spends 10 months on the lees before bottling.

tasting notes:

Translucent pale yellow with a clear rim and medium legs, Lunare is exotic and well delineated. Ripe tropical aromas of lychee nut, dried rose petals, mango, papaya, and dried apricot introduce flavors of coriander, cardamom and white pepper-scented mango and pineapple. The spicy mineral-laden fruit is well balanced in a full-bodied yet refreshingly dry and elegant package. The perfect pairing with grilled fish, chicken or pork with fruit salsa, Lunare is also fabulous with Indian or Thai curries, Asian style appetizers, and coconut shrimp or as a dry wine with fruit desserts.
