

soave classico DOC

description:

An excellent dry white wine that can boast the name of "Classico" only if it originates from the most ancient zone situated in the communities of Soave and Monteforte D'Alpone. Predominantly produced with Garganega and a small amount of Chardonnay grapes, it presents itself with a bouquet of delicate nuances and a dry, gentle, velvety taste.

veneto

producer:

Remo Farina

grape varieties:

85% Garganega and 15% Chardonnay

exposure:

North-East/South-East

altitude:

350m A.S.L.

soil:

Clayey-calcareous

alcohol:

12.00%

tasting notes:

It presents itself with a straw-yellow color and a characteristic bouquet of delicate nuances of sambuca, peach flowers, sage and white pepper; its taste is of fruity apples and pineapple with a mineral undertone. It accompanies hors d'oeuvres, first courses, fish, shellfish and white meats very well; excellent also as an aperitif.
